

Ever thought about being a farmer?

Are you interested in taking the first step in determining if farming is right for you?

Ag-Curious?

October 11, 2012

Thursday • 5-8 pm

Windward Community College

Hale Akoakoa 105

Free parking

What is the outlook for the Agricultural Industry in Hawaii?

Hear from an expert farmers on the challenges and rewards of farming.

Assess your own readiness to farm

Examine your expectations and constraints related to being a farmer, and assess your current knowledge, skills and physical resources.

Worksheets will be provided.

Learn more about the University of Hawai'i's new program

FarmStarter Hawai'i

A comprehensive and practical training program built around the real-world needs of tomorrow's farmers.

Register your name by Oct. 11, 2012 at gofarm@hawaii.edu

Sponsored by

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Partners

