Shipping Worldwide,
Interstate, and Interisland Fair

Dream of expanding your business off-island? Already do considerable off-island business?

Join a dozen shipping experts who will give you the information, tools, and confidence you need to ship your products anywhere sales are made: to a neighbor island, mainland, or to an international destination! Specifically designed with agricultural producers and processors in mind, this training will help you to overcome some of the shipping obstacles in doing business from an island state.
