

Free!

Hawai'i Forest & Trail presents the 9th Annual

Grow Hawaiian Festival

at Bishop Museum's Amy Greenwell Ethnobotanical Garden
Captain Cook, Hawai'i—Saturday

February 23, 2013 9:00 am —2:30 pm

Celebrating Hawaiian Plants, Culture & Mea Lā'au

song, chants, talk-story sessions, native plants, kapa-making, ipu gourd decorating, lei-making,
presentations, garden tours, plant sales, hula,
Hawaiian food, information booths,
give-aways, how-to, free advice,
activities for the keiki & more...

Call (808) 323-3318

The 9th Annual Grow Hawaiian Festival is made possible by collaborators and volunteers, celebrating diversity and aloha in Hawai'i through the Bishop Museum and Amy B. H. Greenwell Gardens.

This Festival is funded under the Native Hawaiian Culture and Arts Program. Support for this program is also provided by: Office of Hawaiian Affairs 'Ahaui Events Program; Kuki'o, Ka Ahaui o ka Nābehehele; and Kealakekua Ranch, Ltd.

TryLookInside
GRAPHICS

AMY B.H. GREENWELL
ETHNOBOTANICAL GARDEN

OHA
OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS