

Enroll in The Kohala Center's
Beginning
Farmer-Rancher
Development Program

*Next course starts Saturday, November 17, 2018
Classes are held every other Saturday primarily in Honoka'a, with some field visits and workshops in North Kohala, South Kona, and Ka'u 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.*

Our intensive ten-month educational program provides 188 hours of classroom training, workshops, on-farm instruction, field trips to diverse farms and ranches, and online materials. University of Hawai'i researchers, extension agents, and other agricultural experts will cover subjects such as soil fertility management, plant nutrition, livestock production, composting and cover cropping, pest management, marketing, business planning, financing, and more.

Upon successful completion of the program, our staff can assist you in applying for farm leases and capital to scale production, marketing, and distribution of your crops.
