

GROW me the MONEY

Record-keeping and funding opportunities for farmers and food producers

June 30 and July 17, 2018 • 3–6 p.m.
Ka'ū District Gym Multipurpose Community Room
96-1219 Kamani St, Pāhala

Saturday, June 30:
Record-Keeping Principles and Best Practices

Learn practical tips and key steps for organizing and maintaining a record keeping system for your agribusiness, including seed (bean)-to-sale tracking and developing standard operating procedures. Maile Woodhall, agricultural outreach specialist at The Kohala Center, will be the keynote speaker.

Tuesday, July 17:
Business Capitalization and Funding Sources

Discover loan, grant, and financial incentive programs for your business, and learn best practices for applying for USDA funding from Megan Blazak, agricultural business development specialist at The Kohala Center.

Enrollment is free but space is limited.
Reserve your spot at koha.la/growmoney or contact Megan Blazak at 808-887-6411.

Presented by

THE KOHALA CENTER®

with funding support from the U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Development Socially Disadvantaged Groups program and the County of Hawai'i