

Introduction to Recordkeeping and Farm Service Agency Programs

Presented in collaboration with County of Hawai'i and USDA Beginning Farmer-Rancher Development Program

Saturday, May 19
9 a.m.–Noon

North Hawai'i Education and Reserach Center
45-539 Plumeria St, Honoka'a

Enrollment is free but space is limited. Reserve your spot at fsa18.eventbrite.com or contact Maile Woodhall at mwoodhall@kohalacenter.org or 808-887-6411.

Agricultural producers are invited to participate in this free workshop to learn recordkeeping essentials and discover the benefits of Farm Service Agency programs. Presenters include Maile Woodhall, The Kohala Center's agricultural outreach specialist, and Farm Service Agency staff Lester Ueda, county executive director, and Linda Kow, farm loan programs manager.

